1 Introduction

- 1.1 Futures Housing Group ('the Group') is committed to protecting the privacy of all personal information it holds and processes. This privacy notice explains what personal identifiable information we collect about you, how we use it, who we share it with and how we keep it safe and secure. It also tells you about your privacy rights and how to get in touch if you need to.
- 1.2 It applies to the personal identifiable information we already hold about you and any further personal identifiable information we might collect about you, either from you or from a third party. How we use your personal identifiable information will depend on the products and services we provide to you.
- 1.3 This privacy notice is a public document available when Futures Housing Group obtains and uses your personal identifiable information. It explains how we and appointed third party organisations/people use your personal identifiable information and it details your rights. We obtain your personal identifiable information to conduct our normal business operations.
- 1.4 Our Mandatory Data Protection Officer (MDPO) provides help and guidance to make sure we apply the law to the processing and protection of your personal identifiable information. If you have any questions about how we use your personal identifiable information our MDPO can be reached by email at dataprotection@futureshg.co.uk or by writing to the Data Protection Manager, Futures House, Building 435, Argosy Road, East Midlands Airport, Castle Donnington, Derbyshire, DE74 2SA
- 1.5 For more information about your rights and how our MDPO can help you, please refer to the following sections of this privacy notice:
 - Section 11 – What are your rights under data protection laws?
 - Section 12 – Requesting access to your personal data
 - Section 15 - Who do I contact about data protection queries?
- 1.6 This privacy notice provides up to date information about how we use your personal identifiable information and replaces any previous information we have published/supplied. If we make any significant changes affecting how we use your personal identifiable information, we will make changes to this Privacy notice and we will let you know about these changes.

2 Who is responsible for your data?

- 2.1 Our privacy notice applies to all personal information that Futures Housing Group collects and processes. References in this privacy notice to 'the Group', 'we', 'us' or 'our' mean Futures Housing Group Limited of Futures House, Building 435, Argosy Road, East Midlands Airport, Castle Donnington, Derbyshire, DE74 2SA
- 2.2 Futures Housing Group is a 'Group' of companies. In this privacy notice, when we refer to 'Group', we mean other members of our 'Group' of companies, including holding and subsidiary companies. Futures Housing Group subsidiaries include:
- Futures Housing Group Limited
 - Futures Homescape Limited
 - Futures Homeway Limited
 - Limehouse Developments Limited, and
 - Five Doorways Homes Limited.
- 2.3 We are a 'data controller' of your personal data - this means we are responsible for how we collect and use your information.
- 2.4 As a registered social housing provider, we are regulated by the Regulator of Social Housing.

3 What types of personal information do we process about you?

- 3.1 When we use the term 'personal data' in our privacy notice, we mean information that relates to you and allows us to identify you. 3.4 Special category data

3.4.1 When we collect personal data about you, we may ask for information which is considered sensitive or classed as 'special category data' under data protection laws. This includes information relating to your racial or ethnic origin, physical or mental health, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, your sex life or sexual orientation. Special category data also includes the processing of genetic data or biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person.

3.4.2 We will only collect this type of data if you have given us explicit consent, or we have a legal basis for doing so.

3.4.3 There may be occasions where inadvertently we identify special category data about you. For example, your ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation or disability may be evident from:

- photographs
- video footage
- face-to-face meetings
- statements you provide to us
- declaration of interests; or
- social media

3.4.4 Futures Housing Group acknowledges that we need to take extra care of any special category data we hold about you, so we will make sure it is adequately protected and secured in line with data protection requirements.

4 Where do we get your personal data from?

4.1 We collect personal information about you from various sources which may include:

- directly from you
- from family members, or those who live in a property with you or near you
- from third parties acting on your behalf
- from Futures Housing Group subsidiaries (Futures Homescape Limited, Futures Homeway Limited, and Five Doorways Homes Limited)
- from current and/or previous employers
- from current and/or previous landlords
- from Futures Housing Group business partners (for example recruitment providers, agencies, contractors)
- from government bodies including local authorities, law enforcement agencies, social care agencies
- from agents acting on our behalf (for example estate agencies, credit agencies);
- from external funding providers, or
- from medical practitioners.

4.2 We may collect personal information about you via our website www.futureshg.co.uk, My Account, through online or paper forms, telephone calls, face to face meetings, home visits, email, surveys, affordability calculator, social media or web chat.

5 How and why do we use your personal data?

5.1 We only use your personal identifiable information where laws that protect your privacy rights allow us to. This will be when:

- we need to use the information to comply with our legal obligations
- we need to use the information to perform a contract with you, and/or
- it is fair to use the personal identifiable information either in our interests or someone else's interests, where there is no disadvantage to you – this can include where it is in our interests to contact you about products or services, market to you, or collaborate with others to improve our services
- we need to seek your consent (if consent is needed) to market to you.

5.2 Where we have your consent, you have the right to withdraw it. We will let you know how to do that at the time we gather your consent. See Section 10 'What if I don't want to provide certain information to you?' for details about how to withdraw your consent to marketing.

5.3 Certain kinds of personal information that is particularly sensitive. This is information about your health status, racial or ethnic origin, political views, religious or similar beliefs, sex life or sexual orientation, genetic or biometric identifiers, trade union membership or criminal convictions or allegations. We will only use this kind of personal information where:

- we have a legal obligation to do so (for example to protect vulnerable people)
- it is necessary for us to do so to protect your vital interests
- it is in the substantial public interest
- it is necessary for the prevention or detection of crime
- it is necessary for insurance purposes, or
- you have specifically given us 'affirmative' consent to use the information
- it is in the public domain.

5.4 We may use your personal data for the following purposes:

Purpose(s) of data use:		Specifically:	Our lawful basis for doing so:
Managing your tenancy.	5.4.1	To set up and maintain a tenancy agreement with you we require personal information to help us identify you and those living with you. You are responsible for letting them know we hold this information. 	5.4.28	To record and identify all visitors to our premises for the purposes of security and Health & Safety.	Legitimate interests.
	5.4.29	To record and respond to cases of anti-social behaviour. We will investigate reports of anti-social behaviour by completing an initial risk assessment, interview the informant and/or other household members, talk to perpetrators and utilise noise monitoring equipment if relevant. Where the case relates to an act of criminality, we will encourage the informant to contact the police, or we may contact the police on their behalf. Case information may be recorded on the E-CINS (Empowering Communities Inclusion & Neighbourhood-management System) database which is	Vital interests. Legal obligation.

		shared with relevant partner agencies, such as local authorities and police. This may include details of conversations, letters, enforcement notices and other evidence relating to the case.
	5.4.30	To ensure that we can help you if you need emergency help or assistance, we may need to contact your next of kin. You are responsible for letting them know we are using their information for this purpose.	Vital interests.
	5.4.31	To ensure the safety and security of Futures Housing Group staff or contractors, we will record any instances of unacceptable behaviour. Where violent/threatening incidents occur, as a minimum we will visit your property in pairs. In these instances, we will write to you to let you know the reasons why. We will also share this with contractors working on your property if required.	Legitimate interests.
Customer service and complaint resolution.	5.4.32	For customer research purposes we may contact you to check you are happy with the service you have received. This is so we can address any issues and improve our customer service.	Legitimate interests.
	5.4.33	To effectively deal with complaints. In addition to collecting your name and contact details, we may need to ask you for further information to assist us in investigating and resolving your complaint. We will only ask you for information which is relevant to your complaint.	Perform a contract.
	5.4.34	To enable you to conveniently self-serve through the My Account portal you will be asked to supply personal information when you register. This will enable you to check/update your personal details, view your rent account statement, and book/manage repairs.	Perform a contract.

	5.4.35	To offer money advice we will need certain details about your personal and financial situation. We will only provide you with advice if you ask for it.	Consent from the data subject.
	5.4.36	To enable you to share feedback and concerns with us, so we can satisfactorily resolve them where appropriate.	Perform a contract.
	5.4.37	To enable us to review and continually improve our service and product offerings, we may ask if you'd like to be involved in videos for research purposes; for example, we may wish to take videos of you using our services. This is entirely voluntary and will not be done without your explicit consent, from which you can withdraw at any time.	Consent from the data subject.
	5.4.38	We may record calls for training purposes and to shape continuous improvement.	Legitimate interests.
Financial purposes.	5.4.39	To enable us to process payments, including making sure you pay the correct amount of tax, we may need banking details, card details and other financial information from you.	Perform a contract.
Keeping you up to date.	5.4.40	To enable us to provide you with useful and important information relating to your tenancy, employment, or contract with us.	Legitimate interests.
	5.4.41	To enable us to share information about our products and services or send you other marketing communications.	Consent. Legitimate interests.
	5.4.42	To enable us to share case studies or news stories about you.	Consent.
	5.4.43	To enable us to create effective promotional, marketing and/or commercial publications.	Legitimate interests.

6 How we protect your personal data

- 6.1 All personal information you provide to us is stored on our secure servers within the UK. However there may be occasions where your information may need to be stored in or sent to companies, service providers, agents, subcontractors and regulatory authorities in countries outside of the European Economic Area ('EEA') which may not have the same level of security and protection as we have under UK legislation. If we have to do this, we will make sure that suitable security measures are in place.
- 6.2 Where we have given you (or where you have chosen) a password which enables you to access certain parts of our website, you are responsible for keeping this password confidential. You must not share a password with anyone.
- 6.3 We take data security matters on our customers' information very seriously. With this in mind we treat your data with care and take a best practice approach to protect it wherever possible.
- 6.4 We secure all of our websites using 'https' technology and we regularly monitor our systems for possible vulnerabilities, threats and attacks to ensure your data remains protected. We also carry out vulnerability and penetration testing on a regular basis to identify emerging threats to further strengthen security.

- 6.5 Futures Housing Group is a Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI-DSS) compliant organisation. This means that we adhere to high security standards to protect your payment card details when you are providing us with this information.
- 6.6 We will only keep your personal information for as long as we need it to fulfil the purposes set out in this privacy notice, or as required by law. This might be for as long as you have a relationship with us, or longer where we need it for legitimate reasons such as legal, tax or regulatory purposes.

7 Social media

- 7.1 We work with third parties, including social network sites like Facebook, Twitter and YouTube. We use them to keep you updated on our products and services, share news stories and videos and to offer alternative ways for you to contact us.
- 7.2 All of these companies operate third party sites. We cannot control how your data is collected, stored, used or shared by these third party sites or to whom it is disclosed. Please be sure to review the privacy policies and privacy settings on your social networking sites to make sure you understand the information they are sharing. If you do not want a third party site to share information about you, you must contact that site and determine whether it gives you the opportunity to opt-out of sharing such information. Futures Housing Group Limited is not responsible for how these third party sites may use information collected from or about you.
- 7.3 Social media posts on the Futures Housing group website are publicly available and therefore you should not submit personal information about yourself using these channels. If you decide to use social media to contact us, you accept full responsibility for the security and use of the data provided. Any private messages sent using social media will only be stored for the duration of dealing with your enquiry and any information provided will not be used for any other purposes than customer support.

8 Sharing your personal data

- 8.1 Futures Housing Group may share the information it collects about you with other companies within the Group. It may also be disclosed to third parties in the following instances:

9 Use of Google Analytics and cookies

- 9.1 We use Google Analytics to collect anonymous information about use of our website. Google Analytics collects information such as how often users visit this site, what pages they visit when they do so and what other sites they used prior to coming to this site. We use the information we get from Google Analytics only to improve our website.
- 9.2 Although Google Analytics places a permanent cookie on your web browser to identify you as a unique user next time you visit our website, the cookie cannot be used by anyone but Google whose ability to use and share information collected by Google Analytics about your visits to this site is restricted by the Google Analytics Terms of Use and the Google Privacy Policy.
- 9.3 Google Analytics uses cookies to define user sessions, which allows for the collection of data about how visitors are using the websites. First Party Cookies are used which means that the cookies are linked to a specific website domain and Google Analytics will only use that cookie for statistical analysis related to your browsing behaviour on that specific website.
- 9.4 If you wish to, you can opt out by turning off cookies in the preferences settings in your web browser or you can use Google's opt out tool within Chrome.

10 What if you don't want to provide certain information to us?

- 10.1 We will be unable to provide you with products or services if you do not let us have certain pieces of personal information. But we'll only ask you for what we really need.
- 10.2 In some cases providing personal information is optional, for example providing your contact details to receive marketing communications. We will make it explicitly clear if this is the case, so you can decide if you want to opt in or not. If you change your mind and decide you don't want to receive marketing communications any more, you can let us know by emailing communications@futureshg.co.uk.

11 What are your rights under data protection laws?

- 11.1 From the 25 May 2018 you will have eight rights relating to the use and storage of your personal identifiable information. These are:
- The right to be informed
 - The right of access
 - The right to rectification
 - The right to erasure
 - The right to restrict processing
 - The right to data portability
 - The right to object
 - Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling.
- 11.2 In brief, you have the right to be informed who is obtaining and using your personal information, how this information will be retained, shared and secured and what lawful grounds will be used to obtain and use it. You have the right to object to how we use your personal information in certain circumstances. You also have the right to obtain a copy of the personal information we hold about you. You can find out how to do this in Section 12.
- 11.3 In addition, you can ask the Group to correct inaccuracies and in some circumstances delete or restrict personal information or to provide some of your personal information to someone else. You can make a complaint if you feel we are using your information unlawfully and/or holding inaccurate, inadequate or irrelevant information which if used may have a detrimental impact on you and/or has an impact on your rights.
- 11.4 If you wish to exercise any of your rights or have a complaint on the way your personal information is handled, please contact dataprotection@futureshg.co.uk or write to the Data Protection Manager at Futures House, Building 435, Argosy Road, East Midlands Airport, Castle Donnington, Derbyshire, DE74 2SA
- 11.5 If you are not happy with the way we deal with any complaint relating to the way we use your personal information you can refer it to the data protection supervisory authority. In the UK, this is the Information Commissioner's Office, at www.ico.org.uk/concerns

12 Requesting access to your personal data

- 12.1 You have the right to request access to the personal data we hold about you.
- 12.2 If you would like to request a copy of your personal data, you can do so through our website <https://futureshg.co.uk/contact-us/enquiry-form/> selecting the drop-down option 'I want to request access to personal information FHG holds about me'.
- 12.3 Alternatively you can contact us via letter, email, telephone or social media.

13 What should you do if your personal information changes?

- 13.1 If any of your personal information changes, such as a contact number or email address, please let us know right away so we can update our records.
- 13.2 For certain changes, such as a change of name, we will ask you to provide further details such as copy of a marriage certificate or deed poll.

14 Updates to our Privacy Notice

- 14.1 Our Privacy Notice will be regularly reviewed to ensure it accurately reflects how your personal information is being used. As it may change at any time in the future, we encourage you to check this Privacy Notice whenever you visit our website www.futureshg.co.uk/privacy

15 Who do I contact about data protection queries?

- 15.1 The Group has appointed a Mandatory Data Protection Officer (MDPO). If you have any questions, comments or concerns about this Privacy notice or the way in which your personal data is being handled, you can email them at dataprotection@futureshg.co.uk or by writing to The Data Protection Manager, Futures House, Building 435, Argosy Road, East Midlands Airport, Castle Donnington, Derbyshire, DE74 2SA.
